

Jazz Pharmaceuticals Appoints Dr. Robert Iannone as Executive Vice President, Research and Development

June 03, 2019

DUBLIN, June 3, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Jazz Pharmaceuticals plc (Nasdaq: JAZZ) today announced the appointment of Robert Iannone, M.D., M.S.C.E., as executive vice president, research and development, effective May 29, 2019. Dr. Iannone will lead Jazz's growing global R&D organization, including the pre-clinical development, clinical development, clinical operations, biostatistics, medical affairs, regulatory affairs, pharmacovigilance and safety functions.

"Rob's extensive industry knowledge, leadership experience and strategic insights bring expertise in areas critical to our expanding capabilities as an innovative, global biopharmaceutical company with growing R&D investment and portfolio," said Daniel Swisher, president and chief operating officer at Jazz Pharmaceuticals. "I look forward to Rob's leadership to propel Jazz forward in the identification and development of life-changing medicine for people with limited or no options."

Dr. Iannone joins Jazz from Immunomedics where he served as the chief medical officer and head of R&D. Prior to his role at Immunomedics, Dr. Iannone had leadership assignments across early- and late-stage development, including the development and approval of immuno-oncology medicines at AstraZeneca and Merck & Co. At AstraZeneca, he served as senior vice president and head of immuno-oncology, global medicines development. At Merck & Co., Dr. Iannone was the executive director for clinical research and section head of oncology.

"I am excited to join Jazz at this time to work with its growing R&D team to further advance the company's mission and its transformation into a leading integrated biopharmaceutical company," said Dr. Iannone. "The company's evolving pipeline and deep relationships in the sleep and oncology medical communities are a testament to Jazz's commitment to advancing science to address unmet needs for patients."

Dr. Iannone received his M.D. from Yale University School of Medicine with Alpha Omega Alpha honors and a Master of Science in Clinical Epidemiology from the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine. Dr. Iannone completed his pediatric residency and pediatric hematology-oncology fellowship at Johns Hopkins Hospital, and has held faculty positions in pediatrics at the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine and Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. Dr. Iannone is the author or co-author of numerous articles in peer-reviewed journals and has served on the Biomarkers Consortium of the Cancer Steering Committee of the Foundation for the National Institutes of Health since 2011.

Jazz is actively exploring innovative therapeutic options ranging from small molecule advancements to biologics, and novel compounds within hematology/oncology and sleep medicine.
